

Catholic Social Teaching and Humane Education

Guide for Kindergarten to Eighth Grade

Laudato Si- Good education plants seeds when we are young, and these continue to bear fruit throughout life.

Catholic Social Teaching

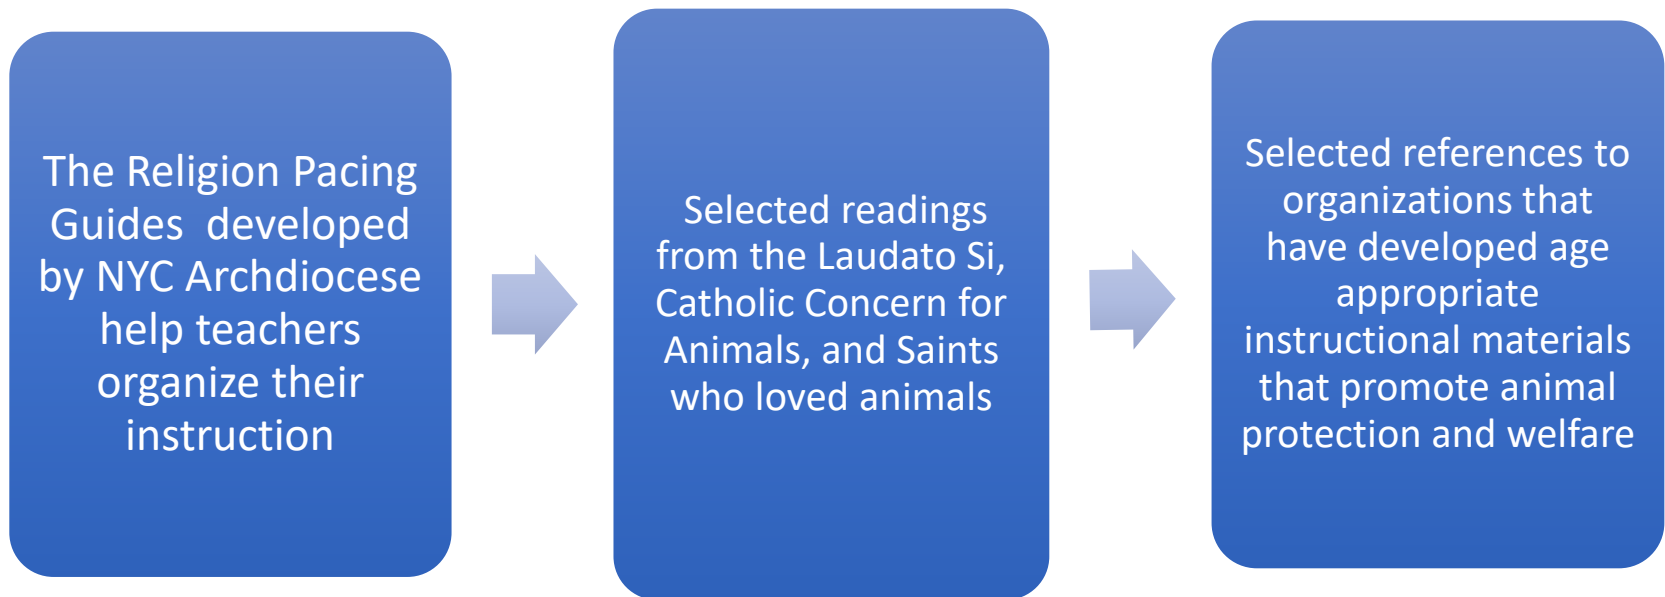

The diagram consists of two large blue arrows pointing towards each other, meeting at a central point. The left arrow contains text about the history of Catholic Social Teaching, and the right arrow contains text about charitable works. The arrows are stylized with a jagged, star-like edge on their outer sides.

Catholic Social Teaching is an expression of the Church's ministry of teaching. From the beginning, social teaching... was developed by the teaching of the Popes on the modern "social question" beginning with the Encyclical Rerum Novarum (May 15, 1891)

Charitable works, meeting the needs of individuals such as donating to food pantries and social justice and removing the root causes-supporting environmental protection laws and improving the educational system

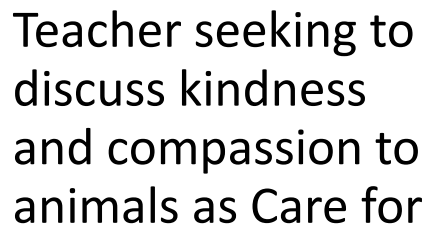

Every creature was loved into being by God, so all members of God's creation have dignity and value.

Catholic Social Teaching and Humane Education

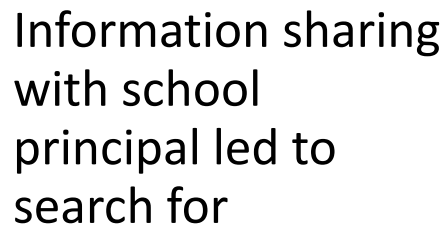

Laudato Si: It (environmental education) seeks also to restore the various levels of ecological equilibrium, establishing harmony within ourselves, with others, with nature and other living creatures, and with God.

Inspiration for Catholic Social Teaching and Humane Education Guide

Teacher seeking to discuss kindness and compassion to animals as Care for Creation

Information sharing with school principal led to search for instruction materials on humane education

Developed a guide that features humane education resources to discuss Care for Creation for grades K-8 throughout the school year

Laudato Si: We read in the Gospel that Jesus says of the birds of the air that “not one of them is forgotten before God” (Lk 12:6). How then can we possibly mistreat them or cause them harm?

The St. Francis Pledge

I/We Pledge to:

PRAY and REFLECT on the duty to care for God's Creation and protect the poor and vulnerable.

LEARN about and educate others on the causes and moral dimensions of climate change.

ASSESS how we-as individuals and in our families, parishes and other affiliations-contribute to climate change by our own energy use, consumption, waste, etc.

ACT to change our choices and behaviors to reduce the ways we contribute to climate change.

ADVOCATE for Catholic principles and priorities in climate change discussions and decisions, especially as they impact those who are poor and vulnerable.

Catholic Faith Based Humane Education Resources

Catholic Concern for Animals

Their mission is the advancement of Christian respect and responsibility for animal creation with special reference to Catholic teaching and beliefs. They publish a quarterly magazine called THE ARK. Here are a few articles featured in two issues. Spring of 2020 Issue- Compassion in World Farming Challenges the World to Rethink Fish (pages 28-32), A Theological Case Against Hunting (pages 33-35), Hare Coursing in Ireland What About the Hares (pages 36-41), Animal Interfaith Alliance (pages 56-59) www.animal-interfaith-alliance.com Summer 2020 Issue-Stopping the Abuse of Sentient Animals (pages 14-21), The Welfare of Companion Animals (pages 35-41)

Catechism of the Catholic Church

Including such topics as (CCC Paragraph 2416) Animals are God's Creatures, (CCC Paragraph 2417) Stewardship of Animals, (CCC Paragraph 2418) Needless Suffering-All three paragraphs could be used to develop an introduction to the Catholic Church's Humane Education Teaching for children. Laudato Si also underscores the importance of being responsible stewards, (Page 30) "Because all creatures are connected...each must be cherished with love and respect."

PLANT BASED DIETS & ANIMAL WELFARE

Americans eat more than 1 million animals per hour taking a terrible toll on human health, animal lives and the environment.

According to the Ark, The Magazine of Catholic Concern for Animals, “ You can grow 17 times more nutritional energy on a piece of land with vegetables than you can with animal food.” In addition, the environmental pollutants that are so prevalent in our food are in low concentrations in plant based foods.

Plant Based Diets lower the risk of death from heart disease by up to 19 percent, according to a study published by the Journal of the American Heart Association.

Plant Based Diets

Improve the Environment & Save Animals Lives

Humane Society of the United States-Greenhouse Gas Emissions will drop by 30% if the world switched to a plant based diet

Farm Sanctuary-70% of the deforestation in the Brazilian Amazon rainforest has been done to raise animals for food

Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine-Eating more plants and fewer animal products could prevent 10.9 to 11.6 million deaths from liver disease, diabetes, and other chronic conditions every year

People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals-It takes more than 2,400 gallons of water to produce 1 pound of flesh, whereas it takes 180 gallons of water to make 1 pound of whole wheat flour

Animal Legal Defense Fund-There is an estimated 9 billion land animals raised and killed for food every year in the United States. Many of these animals are subjected to unimaginable cruelty

ANIMAL AGRICULTURE: A GLOBAL VIEW

Responsible for 14.5%
of Greenhouse Gas Emissions

Uses 27% of Freshwater

Occupies 30% of Earth's Land

Animal agriculture is responsible for a significant amount of the world's greenhouse gas emissions and the depletion of natural resources such as land and water.

COUNTING THE COST OF EATING FISH

World's Fish
Population Down 35%

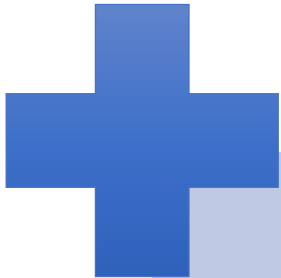

Pacific Blue Fin Tuna
Population Down 96%

Swordfish Population
Down 90%

Shifting diets from meat and other animal products to plant-based diets has a high potential for reducing carbon footprints and mitigating climate change, as well as improving human health according to, Climate Change 2022: Mitigation of Climate Change, a report from the United Nations' Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change

Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine

A global shift to a plant based diet could reduce mortality and greenhouse gases caused by food production by 10% and 70% respectively by 2050.

Beef contributes the most global greenhouse gas emissions, according to the study. Just 29% of food-related global greenhouse gas emissions come from plant-based foods.
