Dear Kari,

It is with great sorrow that I write to you now. Our dear sweet Puchi passed in his sleep Tuesday afternoon with Kooda at his side.

Puchi was the most loving monkey I have ever met, he loved everyone unconditionally.

This touching video was created by Jennifer of Animal Warriors and long-time supporter of Puchi and his monkey friends.

Puchi had a way of looking deep into your soul. No matter what challenges you were facing, Puchi, with his hand placed gently over his heart, let you know that every little thing was going to be alright.

Puchi's compassion could bring you to tears. I am so grateful to have felt the love pouring out of Puchi. When Puchi looked into your eyes, you knew he was looking deep into your soul.

Puchi outlived so many of his monkey friends: Cappy, ChiChi, Wendell, and little Joni. Kooda is mourning the loss of her dear friend and we are planning to introduce her to another friend soon.

Puchi and Cappy lived life to the fullest as you will see in the video.

I will always remember Puchi and Cappy's wild Geriatric Gymnastics! This video was taken over 10 years ago, these two old guys had such a great time together. More about Puchi's friends.

Goodnight Puchi was produced by Gene, one of Puchi's many human friends. The camera filmed a sneak peek into Puchi and Wendell during the night.

We can all learn kindness from Puchi. Longtime supporter Maggie says it best, "Puchi truly opens his heart to everyone he meets. He is the spokes-monkey for forgiveness, trust, peace, and hope."

Puchi is gone from our sight, but never from our hearts.
